classroom awards

Prep/1

Congratulations Harrison, You are always waiting quietly on the mat for your instructions in class! Well Done

Year 2/3/4

Jaxon, you make our classroom a happy place to be because you cooperate so well. You also play happily in the yard with others. You are a very bright example to others of how to get along with everybody & not to get fussed about "small stuff". Great job.

Year 5/6

Caleb, for always being cooperative with your teacher and your classmates. You are helpful and a great team player.

JULIE'S NOTES

I spent two days of last week at the principal conference in Melbourne with over 700 principals from our region. It was interesting listening to the international speakers, but I got the most out of networking with the other principals – especially those from small schools. They had many tips and hints about how to provide well for our small schools.

This Friday students will receive their reports for this semester. Please take the time to read and discuss these with your children as staff have spent a lot of time considering how the partnership between home and school can best help them. The following week will be parent teacher interviews. Forms went out last week with the newsletter so please return your form if interested as spaces are filling fast.

Prep, one, twos are heading into Horsham on Thursday to see a performance called "Going on a Bear Hunt." This should be great fun. The rest of the school will see "Wind in the Willows" next term.

Getting to know your fruit food group!

Last week we focused on the vegetables and legumes food group from the Australian Guide to Healthy Eating. This week we are going to focus on the fruit food group!

The Australian Guide to Healthy Eating aims to help us enjoy a range of nutritious foods that will give us the energy we need to get through the day.

The fruit group gives you plenty of choice throughout the year! It is important to choose fruits that are in season because they are better quality and better value.

Fruits have many health benefits such as making you feel fuller for longer, therefore preventing over eating which can cause weight gain. You should try to choose fruits of different colours also as this will help to increase the variety of nutrients that your body needs. Fruits can also help to boost your immune system and make you be healthy with fewer illnesses such as the common cold.

What is a fruit? Fruits include:

Apples	Grapes
Pears	Peaches
Oranges	Bananas

What does a serve of fruit look like?

- 1 medium apple, banana, orange or pear
- 2 small apricots or kiwi fruits
- 1 small bunch of grapes
- 1 cup of diced or canned fruit (in natural juice – NO added sugar)

How many serves of fruits should an adult be having a day?

- 2 serves a day

How many serves of fruits should children be having a day?

- 1-2 serves a day

Fruit animals!

Eating fruit can be fun try making different animals out of them such as the ones below:

If you would like any more information on the food groups or the Australia Guide to Healthy Eating visit their
